BARGAIN BILL AT THE LIBERTY

The Liberty theater last night opened a bargain sale in musical comedy attractions by putting two shows on one double bill. The bill is strong on quantity and half of it is of considerable quality. The other half is a laborious straining after laughs that sometimes come and sometimes stay away.

"The Bullfighters", a farcical skit which constitutes the first half of the show, concerns a Cuban ranch, the young mistress, Carlita, her lover, Romero, the American ranch manager and two Americans, Jew and Dutchman, who come down "on spec." The comedy is built around Carlita's efforts to rid herself of a restriction in her father's will by which she must marry an American. She compromises finally by marrying Romero after toying with the affections of the Americans.

The hit of the show is supposed to be the bullfight scene, which goes on behind the scenery and is portrayed through the actions of spectators on the stage. The German, our old friend Frank Vack, comes off victorious, having slain a bull, while the Hebrew, our old friend Bert LeBlanc, gets hooked in the trousers. The situation is badly strained and the work of the company last night was ragged and halting. Some of the specialties and choruses are good, particularly a band chorus, while Harry Burgess has one inimitable bit as a soldier. Merely an exit, but he raises the roof with it. He also has a dance with Eugenie LeBlanc that is fetching.

The cast:
Fritz Humblefeller.....Frank Vack
Heine von Snooze.....Bert LeBlanc
Mark Haley.....Dave Nowlin
Romero (Spanish bullfighter).....
Carlton Chase
Jose (a soldier).....Harry Burgess
Miss Carlita O'Dea.....
Miss Gertrude St. Clair
Amina (maid to Carlita).....
Eugenie LeBlanc
Miss Maude Newton (a visitor).....
Teddy Martin

The last half of the bill, "Three of a Kind", is constructed around the story of a young man who disguises himself in order to fool the guardian of his sweetheart, the guardian being his father, who kicks about the marriage. The young man happens to find a photograph and disguises himself to resemble it. When it is understood that this photograph is that of one of a pair of twins who look alike, that one of the twins is married and the other engaged, the complications that ensue when the various people begin getting mixed up on identities are easy to foresee.

The story of this farce is reminiscent of "Three Twins", a musical comedy that had great vogue in the states some three years ago. For once Vack and LeBlanc shake their character parts and appear as "white men."

The fun is fast and furious and keeps growing until it comes to a climax with the appearance of the three twins on the stage at the same time.

The cast:
Gen. Stanhope (a martyr to dyspepsia).....Frank Vack
Tom Stanhope (his father's heir).....
Carlton Chase
Dick Winter (husband of Mrs. Winters).....Bert LeBlanc
Harry Winters (Dick's twin brother).....Dave Nowlin
Ned Moreland (in love with Isabel).....
Harry Burgess
Kate Armitage (companion of Miss Howard).....
Gerrude St. Clair
Mrs. Winters (in search of her husband).....Eugenie LeBlanc
Miss Mollie Summers (fiance of Dick).....Miss Teddy Martin

NEW HILO LINE TO USE WAILUKU RIVER

Governor Fear is preparing the form of a water license to be sold to L. S. Connors at public auction, giving him the privilege of using the water of the Wailuku river to generate electric power for the proposed electric line in that city, the franchise for which the Hilo editor succeeded in obtaining from the last Congress.

The form of the license being drawn by the Governor will be quite similar to that to be sold to the Oahu Sugar Company for the Waialeale water rights. Anyone may bid for the license which is to run for a certain period of years, not determined as yet. After that period, the premium paid the Territory for the use of the water flow will be readjusted every ten years. The Territory will also have the right to purchase the power plant at any time when it is found desirable for territorial or municipal purposes.

FOR DANDRUFF; FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP, 25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save Your Hair! Danderine Destroys Dandruff and Stops
Falling Hair at Once—Grows Hair. We Prove It

If you care for heavy hair, that roots firmly, loosens and dies; then the hair falls out fast.
If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair

DR. CLARK NOW IN WASHINGTON

Secretary Kearns of the Territorial Immigration bureau has received a cablegram from Dr. Victor Clark, who is now in Washington, announcing that the doctor will probably defer his arrival here until the Korean. Dr. Clark, in a previous cablegram, dated from New York, stated that he would return on the Sonoma, December 23. The last dispatch, however, indicates that one of the departments in Washington has asked the doctor to visit the capital and give certain information, and the cable asks permission to remain over for a time.

SESSION WITH FUN

Following their recent session to discuss the report of the committee on labor—which itself is confidential—the planters yesterday inspected their own and the federal experiment stations. This closed the serious business of a more than ordinarily successful annual meeting and last night the Association unbent itself at the annual banquet and burlesque at the Pacific Club, the theme of the performance being the Fisher investigation.

"Sending the Baby Through College"

The "honor man" last year in one of the best scientific schools in the country was a son of parents who were poor but very wise.

The year their baby was born they opened a "College Education Account" in a saving bank. They laid aside only one dollar a week, but when the boy was eighteen these small savings had grown to a sufficient size to pay his way through a costly college.

One dollar will open an account in this bank in your baby's name or in yours.
